

Description

This cutaway model is carefully sectioned for training purposes and professionally painted with different colors to better differentiate the various parts and cross-sections. Many parts have been chromium-plated and galvanized for longer life.

- Dry single-plate clutch with spring and diaphragm. The clutch is operated mechanically by means of a foot pedal for training purposes.
- Operated manually through a handwheel
- Gearbox cutaway model on stand with wheels

Equipment for technical and vocational Tesca education and training.
The pictures shown are for illustration purposes only.

Note: Specifications are subject to change.

